

Minorities in the Baltic Sea

What are some of the main issues facing different minority groups in the Baltic Sea Area today?

Friday, May 26th, 2017
at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin 10.30–16.00 hrs
Dorotheenstr. 24, room 3.246

Programme

- 10.30 Opening words by Dr. Jan Hecker-Stampehl Nordeuropa-Institut, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
- 10.40 What is a Minority? by Kjetil Duvold Senior Researcher at Södertörn University, Sweden
- 11.00 Russian Minorities in the Baltic States – between integration and inclusion in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania by Ewa Chylinski Regional Director of ECMI Caucasus, Tblisi, Georgia
- 11.45 National, Ethnic, Linguistic Minorities in Poland – Recent Developments
by Prof. Tomasz Wicherkiewicz Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan, Poland
- 12.45 Break for lunch
- 13.45 Current Issues Facing the Indigenous Sámi People of Norway, Sweden and Finland
by Dr. Lia Markelin
Associate Professor at the Sámi University of Applied Sciences, Norway
- 14.30 The German Minority in Denmark
by Jan Diedrichsen
Head of Representation at Schleswig-Holsteinischer Landtag
- 15.15 Minority or Majority? The case of the Swedish-speaking Finns
by Dr. Nils Erik Forsgård
Director of Magma Think Tank, Helsinki, Finland

magma

