

PRELIMINARY TIMETABLE

Monday, April 4th, 2005

13.00–14.00 Greetings, Keynote Lecture

15.00–19.00 Panel I: Northern Dimension in Third Country-Politics
Chair: Prof. Dr. Bernd Henningsen
Third country-cooperation being the central aspect of the EU's Erasmus Mundus-programme, experts from third country political institutions will discuss if a "Northern Dimension" can be found in their respective countries' politics – and what "Northern" refers to in that case.

Tuesday, April 5th, 2005

9.00–13.00 Panel II: Baltic Sea Region Studies in the World
Chair: Coordinator Ms Tarja Hyppönen
Selected examples of BSR study programmes – from inside the BSR as well as from third countries will be presented. Crucial is the question what definitions of "Baltic (Sea) Region" are behind these.

15.00–19.00 Panel III: The Baltic Sea Region – a European Model Area
Chair: Prof. Dr. Uffe Jakobsen
Researchers deal with key questions concerning the BSR as a European Model Area.

Wednesday, April 6th, 2005

9.00–13.00 Panel IV: Entre deux Mers: Two European Key Areas
Chair: Dr. Fabrizio Tassinari
The Mediterranean and the BSR as two European areas with many parallels and as scientific and educational spaces are presented, compared and discussed.
