

SUMMER SCHOOL

ENERGY SECURITY IN THE BALTIC SEA REGION IN THE 21ST CENTURY

5 September – 16 September 2011

The international and interdisciplinary summer school is a LLP-ERASMUS-Intensive Programme jointly organized by Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin and Københavns Universitet in cooperation with Turun Yliopisto, Tartu Ülikool, Vilnius University, Latvijas Universitate, and Uniwersytet Gdański.

Take this unique opportunity and experience lectures, seminars, discussions and study trips in Copenhagen and Berlin to the following topics:

- Energy Security – Status and Perspectives in the Countries of Europe
- Energy Politics of the European Union
- Energy and Environment
- Europe's Far North as a Test Case for Energy Security in the 21st Century
- Sustainability as a Challenge for City Development, Consumers & Producers
- Study trips

Course Language: English

Credits: 5 ECTS

Deadline for Applications: 15 July 2011

Head of the Summer School: Prof. Dr. Bernd Henningsen
Dept. for Northern European Studies
Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Prof. Dr. Ole Wæver
Dept. for Political Studies
Københavns Universitet

Contact and Applications: ip_energy@staff.hu-berlin.de

Turun yliopisto
University of Turku

LATVIJAS
UNIVERSITĀTE