

SNU-Vorlesungsreihe „Becoming the North“

Vortrag von Aslak Holmberg „When you have a past, you have a future.“ – A Saami encounter

Aslak Holmberg is a Saami elementary school teacher, podcast host, author and the Vice President of the Saami Council representing Finnish Saami Central Organization. He is from Njuorggán, Saapmi (Finland). He has taught North Saami language at the Saami University of Applied Sciences as well as for the 2nd grade children. He has been active in Finnish Saami Youth organization and currently he is involved in Saami and indigenous issues on the national level, and internationally in the United Nations framework through his vice-presidency at the Saami Council. He studied a Master of Indigenous Studies degree at the Arctic University of Norway in Tromsø. As a Member of the Saami Parliament, he has been the Chair of the Culture Committee. Moreover, he is a traditional salmon fisher and traditional Saami Joik performer. In his talk, he will be focusing on issues concerning the Saami youth and young adults.

Bildquelle : Pressefoto von Saami Council

Die Vorlesung findet auf Englisch statt, das Gespräch danach auf Englisch und Deutsch. Bitte beachtet die 2G-Regel und Maskenpflicht.

Kooperationspartner: Samarbetsnämnden för Nordenundervisning i utlandet und Finnland-Institut in Deutschland.

Wann? Donnerstag, 9. Dezember 2021, 18:15 Uhr

Wo? Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin,
Nordeuropa-Institut
Dorotheenstr. 24
10117 Berlin
(Universitätsgebäude am Hegelplatz)
Haus 1, R 1.101

Kontakt: Pia Päiviö
pia.paeivioe@hu-berlin.de